Dear valued customer,

Everyone has a different idea of what a home is. Some are formal; some are grand. Some are casual and cozy. And for others, a home is a place where your unique personality and style define the very moment of being.

At Scandinavia, we’re here to help you realize that those very moments can create a lifetime of enjoyment and satisfaction. Because a home, like any other environment, plays an important role in your emotional and physical well-being.

With over 30,000 square feet of home and office showrooms, our selection of furniture and accoutrement represents the most exciting and provocative pieces available today. From euro-styled beds and wardrobe centers to the best in ergonomic seating, we bring you exciting new possibilities! Everything for your dining room and your home theater, your office to the kids’ rooms, we’ll keep you inspired with items you don’t see at just any store. Our professional staff is here to make your experience with us one of imagination and fulfillment.

For over 28 years, we’ve offered the latest in international interiors for your residence and office. Furniture that is not only comfortable and stylish, but designs that have a strong following and reputation for innovation and functionality from the best designers and manufacturers throughout the world.

We invite you to experience “the way to live” and look forward to welcoming you to Scandinavia!
